By-Election September 6, 2023

The Town of Penhold has announced a by-election to fill a vacant seat on Town Council from former Councillor Mike Walsh's resignation. Nomination Day was Wednesday August 9 and five (5) Penhold residents have put their names forward as candidates.

"I, along with Council encourage all eligible residents to participate in the democratic process by researching and speaking with candidates, and casting their ballots," said Mayor Mike Yargeau. "By taking part in the by-election, residents can continue to contribute to making our community a great place to grow, by electing representatives they want to see serve on Council."

The five candidates in Penhold's Municipal By-Election are:

- Rob Burton
- Mike Dodman
- Cameron Galisky
- Samantha Miller
- Brandon Pringle

For more information about the Town of Penhold by-election, including voting procedures and candidate information, please visit the Town of Penhold website www.townofpenhold.ca.

Watering restrictions are in place year round in Penhold
